

Hooghly Mohsin College Notification

Arrangement of Classes through Online Mode and Suspension of Activities related to College Office due to Parliament General Election 2024

No. 123/2024

Date 20th April, 2024

It is hereby notified for information of all concerned that all UG & PG even semester classes for the current academic year (2024) shall be held through online mode with effect from Tuesday, April 23, 2024 until further orders.

All activities relating to college office shall remain suspended with effect from Wednesday, April 24, 2024 until further orders. Students concerned are directed to complete any of their needs with college office within Tuesday, April 23, 2024.

These arrangements are done due to the requisition of this college by the district administration for the ensuing Parliament General Election 2024.

Students concerned are directed to communicate their departmental Heads as well their respective groups about the arrangements of online classes. They are also required to follow the college website www.hooghlymohsincollege.ac.in on regular basis to obtain further information.

All attached to this college are requested to take a careful note of those pieces of information.
