

Report on the Celebration of Cooperative Week 2026

The Department of Cooperation, Government of West Bengal, in collaboration with Hooghly Mohsin College, jointly organized the Cooperative Week Celebration 2026 on 3rd July 2026 from 12:00 noon onwards at P1 Room, Hooghly Mohsin College. The programme aimed to promote awareness of the cooperative movement and its significance in socio-economic development among students and the wider community.

The programme witnessed enthusiastic participation from students, teachers, and officials of the Department of Cooperation, Government of West Bengal. The inaugural session was presided over by Dr. Purushottam Pramanik, Principal, Hooghly Mohsin College and Deblina Hazra Joint Registrar of Cooperative Societies , Hooghly Range. Govt of west Bengal along with Dr Bikash De, Associate Professor and Coordinator IQAC other distinguished guests, who emphasized the vital role of the cooperative sector in fostering inclusive growth, self-reliance, democratic participation, and sustainable development.

As part of the celebration, a series of academic and co-curricular events were organized, including:

- A lecture on the importance and future prospects of the cooperative movement.

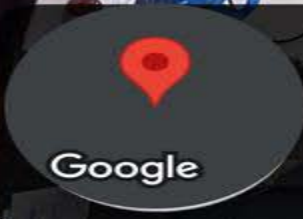

- An Inter-Institutional Debate Competition on contemporary issues related to cooperatives and sustainable development.
- An Inter-Institutional Quiz Competition focusing on cooperatives, general knowledge, current affairs, and socio-economic issues.

Students from Hooghly Mohsin College, along with participants from several educational institutions across Hooghly district, actively participated in these events. The competitions witnessed enthusiastic participation, healthy competition, and meaningful academic interaction among the participants.

The programme successfully enhanced awareness of the principles and functioning of the cooperative movement while encouraging critical thinking, teamwork, leadership, and social responsibility among students. Certificates and prizes were awarded to the winners and participants during the valedictory session.

The joint initiative of the Department of Cooperation, Government of West Bengal, and Hooghly Mohsin College was highly appreciated by all stakeholders and concluded successfully with a formal vote of thanks, reaffirming the commitment of both institutions to promoting cooperative values, community engagement, and educational excellence. More than hundred participants were present in the programme including Students teachers and Nonteaching Staffs.
