Celebration of the 207th Birth Anniversary of Pandit Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar

Date: 26th September 2026

Venue: Hooghly Mohsin College, Chinsurah, Hooghly

The 207th birth anniversary of the illustrious social reformer and educationist Pandit Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar was commemorated at Hooghly Mohsin College, Chinsurah, Hooghly, on 26th September 2026 with due solemnity and respect. A short programme was organized by the Cultural Committee of the college to mark the occasion.

The programme commenced with a garlanding ceremony of the portrait of Pandit Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar, by respected Principal of the college, Dr. Purushottam Pramanik. Dr. Purushottam Pramanik also delivered a brief speech highlighting the enduring relevance of Vidyasagar's ideals and his remarkable contributions to society and education.

The ceremony was followed by floral tributes offered by Dr. Chandana Datta, Secretary of the Teachers' Council, members of the faculty, and the non-teaching staff of the college.

The academic segment of the programme featured an insightful address by Dr. Indrani Hazra, Assistant Professor, Department of Bengali, who spoke on the multifaceted contributions of Pandit Ishwar Chandra Vidyasagar, in the backdrop of Bengal Renaissance, particularly in the fields of women's education, widow remarriage, and the social issue of polygamy. She also highlighted his pioneering role in the development and advancement of Bengali prose.

Jayati Ghatak, Assistant Professor, Department of History, enriched the programme with a recitation.

The entire programme was anchored by Dr. Shreyasee Majumdar, Assistant Professor, Department of Philosophy, who conducted the proceedings in a graceful and well-coordinated manner.
